XMAS MEAL

On 11th December 175 People attended the Phoenix for a Xmas meal! This was an excellent night, clearly enjoyed by all. A special thanks to our organisers, Glynn Perry, Paul Crawford and Sean Rollinson.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The next social event will be at the Phoenix where we will be entertained by a Madness tribute band. Tickets will be £7 each and are available from the first week in January. The event is expected to be a sell out, so please see your team managers as soon as possible.

Annual Presentation Night, Magna Centre - Saturday 14 May 2005

PERFORMANCES

Amongst the many excellent performances by teams during November a special mention goes to our U9's who beat their great rivals Thorpe Hesley Panthers, 6-2, a superb result. Individual achievement goes to Matthew Gillbank, of the U11 Juniors, who scored all 6 goals against the top of the table opponents, Beighton Falcons, However, it was all to no avail as they lost 7-6!

Whitehill U11's, playing in the C Division have reached the quarter finals of the cup after beating sides from the B Division twice, next up Young Owls!

The Seniors have reached the last 16 of both the S&H Cup and the Rotherham Sunday Cup, this after beating a Premier Division side 6-2.

The U16 girls have reached the final of their cup. This will be played at Outokumpo in April!

For all results please visit our website, read the Advertiser, Green Un or the Brinsworth Parish News.

SWFC

4 Managers and Coaches attended a training session at Middlewood Road as part of our continued links with Sheff Wed.

LEVEL 1 COACHING

Congratulations to Steve Asher of the U15 Juniors, who after recovering from illness, as now gone on to complete is Level 1 Coaching Certificate.
